Manny Ramirez suits up for the Sac River Cats

■ Slugger will play some outfield in West Sacramento while waiting out his MLB suspension

Baseball icon Manny Ramirez has joined the Sacramento River Cats roster for 10 games, with his Raley Field debut scheduled for this Friday, the Oakland Athletics announced last week.

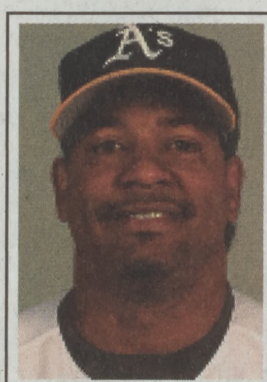

Ramirez is eligible to play 10 minor league games in advance of being activated from his current 50-game suspension, said the A's.

The outfielder will play all 10 minor league games with the River Cats, the A's Triple-A affiliate.

He was suspended from major league play after testing positive for prohibited drugs.

His first game with the Cats is scheduled for Saturday, May 19, against the Albuquerque Isotopes at Isotopes Park in Albuquerque, N.M.

In conjunction with Ramirez' appearance in Sacramento, the River Cats are offering a special deal for fans who purchase tickets for the Sunday, May 27 or Monday, May 28 home games at Raley Field. For each ticket purchased in the Senate, Governor's Club or Raley's Diamond Club sections, fans will be given one ticket in the same section to the June 20 (12:05 p.m.) or June 27 (7:05 p.m.) home games.

Fans can also purchase a limited-edition Manny Pack, which includes 20 or 40 River Cats ticket vouchers (good for any game this season). In addition to the game vouchers, both Manny Packs come with a Manny Ramirez River Cats t-shirt, while supplies last. For more information or to purchase a Manny Pack, fans can call the River Cats at (916) 376-HITS (4487).

Ramirez is eligible to play in Major League games beginning Wednesday, May 30, when the A's take on the Minnesota Twins at Target Field in Minneapolis. The former Indians, Red Sox, Dodgers, White Sox and Rays slugger currently sits 14th all-time with 555 home runs and 18th all-time with 1,831 RBIs. He has not appeared in a Major League game since April of 2011, when he appeared in five games with the Tampa Bay Rays.

About 800 people for opening day

By Steve Marschke
News-Ledger Editor

Attendance at the first farmers market of the season was good, reports Meaghan Perelli of the West Sacramento Chamber of Commerce, the market's sponsor.

"We probably had about 800 people through the course of the night -- just as many as opening day last year," she told the News-Ledger.

The market continues on Thursdays from 4:30 p.m. to dusk at 1271 West Capitol. This week's market will not feature live entertainment, but will bring some more produce -- and shortcake.

"We're expecting more farmers this week," said Perelli. "Rhythm & Blueberries will be there. They're a blueberry grower, and they didn't have enough crop last week. Feather River Farms will be coming back. The Eatery, a local restaurant, will be joining us this week. I believe they will do some kind of shortcake dessert."

Gang members sentenced for 2010 attack in Lowe's parking lot

■ Gang members robbed victim in car, then assaulted and intimidated Lowe's employees who tried to help him

District Attorney Jeff Reisig announced May 17 that three Sacramento gang members were sentenced for attacking three people in West Sacramento on April 19, 2010. The attack occurred in a parking lot near the Lowe's store in Southport.

Yolo County Superior Court Judge Stephen L. Mock handed down the sentences.

According to the D.A.'s office, the attack happened like this:

"Twenty-year olds Jose Antonio Duran and Salvador Benjamin Vasquez, Jr., and 21-year-old Joseph Vincent Sisneros, saw a victim who was a Starbucks employee and UC Davis Student eating in his car in the Lowe's parking lot just after 10 p.m. The three Sacramento men, all of whom a jury found to be active Norteño gang members, took the victim's iPod, wallet and keys. The men then did what Judge Mock described as a "senseless beating" of the victim, causing two facial fractures, while he begged them to stop.

"The men were laughing and shouting 'Norte,' the name of their gang, which caught the attention of four Lowe's employees as they exited the store. One employee, a U.S. Army Reservist, approached the assault and attempted to call the police. According to Judge Mock, the men then 'targeted [him] because he was calling the police,' threatened to shoot him, and chased him away.

"The men caught the second Lowe's employee, who was UC Davis physical therapy student. Although the student immediately raised his hands in surrender, defendants Duran and Sisneros repeatedly kicked the victim in the face, breaking his nose, while defendant Vasquez threatened to shoot him. Later, the defendants were pulled over by police as they left the area in Duran's car. After a two week trial, a Yolo County jury convicted all three defendants on February 27, 2012.

"Judge Mock concluded that the defendants had 'terrorized' the three victims and demonstrated the threat posed by criminal street gangs," continued the D.A.'s office. "He sentenced Sisneros to state prison for 15 years, Vasquez for 18 years and four months and Duran for 21 years and four months. For the gang-related witness intimidation, Judge Mock imposed the statutory term of 7-years-to-life on all three defendants."

the case.

"Street gangs succeed as an enterprise because they routinely threaten and intimidate witnesses of their crimes," explained Couzens in a press release. "The 'life' commitment lets witnesses of gang violence know that the justice system wants to protect them and deters gang members from interfering with investigations."

Prior to trial, the each defendant was offered a deal for a "non-life" sentence, said the D.A.'s office. The deals were rejected.

Standoff on Marston Street

A nine-hour standoff on Marston Street ended early Thursday morning with a 38-year old West Sacramento woman in jail.

According to Lieutenant Tod Sockman of the West Sacramento Police Department, the incident started with a medical call to the 1000-block of Marston at about 6:45 p.m. on Wednesday. While a male family member was being removed by ambulance for a medical problem, 38-year old Melissa Dodd ran into the house, locking herself in and locking her mother out.

Police tried to get Dodd to let her mother in.

"A few moments later, while officers and the mother were separated, Melissa Dodd pulled her mother into the house by force," said a press statement from Lt. Sockman. "Yelling from inside the residence was heard. Officers were unable to make entry into the residence. It was believed that (the) mother was being held against her will."

Dodd had felony warrants for domestic violence and possession of stolen property, said Sockman, and also had access to guns in the house. Yolo County hostage negotiators and a West Sacramento/Davis SWAT team were called to the scene.

"Throughout the nine hour standoff, Dodd was in possession of a handgun," said Sockman. "Despite all efforts to have her release her mother and exit the house, Dodd refused. At approximately 4:15 a.m., Dodd cut her wrists, believed to be an attempt to commit suicide. At that time, the SWAT team made entry into the residence and took Dodd into custody."

Aside from Dodd's self-inflicted injuries, said Sockman, there were no further injuries to Dodd or her mother. Dodd was treated and booked.

School district exploring bond for November

The Washington Unified School District's board of trustees will meet at 6 p.m. on Thursday at city hall. Among the many agenda items will be a presentation on the steps needed to place a general obligation school bond on the November ballot.

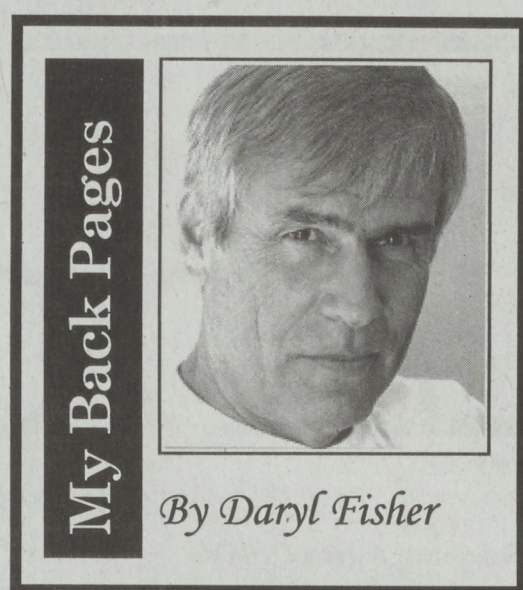

The presentation will be given by Jonathan Edwards of Government Financial Strategies, the district's financial advisor. Details of any bond measure are still yet to be worked out.

Remembering places like Guadalcanal, Tarawa

Another Memorial Day is just around the corner and this weekend, when I pull my car out of the driveway, in front of my next door neighbor's house will be a large American flag flying proudly in the breeze. And on the same tall pole, just beneath the American flag, will be the official Marine Corps flag, and this has been the case on every Memorial Day since I moved in next door to Bill Tyler more than 25 years ago.

As many of you know, West Sacramento is the home of two fine Veterans of Foreign Wars posts and there are hundreds (there used to be thousands) of men and women living here who belong to the Greatest Generation, and Bill is one of them. And with the coming of another Memorial Day, I think I will use this space to reprint part of an interview I did with Bill a number of years ago, in memory of all those who have served their country with the same kind of dedication and courage that he did more than 70 years ago. Bill is in his 90s now, and I can think of no better way to celebrate another Memorial Day than to have some of his words see the light of day again:

Many years ago a friend of mine gave me a World War II book entitled "Hell on the Normandy Beaches" about history's largest military amphibious assault. It introduced me to the incredible human sacrifice which took place on the Normandy beaches code-named Utah, Gold, Juno, Sword and Omaha. Among the words inside the book were these, penned by Ernie Pyle, the famous WWII war correspondent: "By the time we got to the beaches the fighting had moved a couple of miles inland. All that was left was the overturned boats and shell-shattered jeeps and the sad little personal belongings that were strewn all over those bitter sands. That plus the bodies of American soldiers lying in rows covered with blankets. There was also strewn personal gear, gear that would never be needed again by those who fought and died to give us our entrance into Europe. There were sewing kits, diaries, Bibles, letters from loved one, toothbrushes and razors, water-soaked packs of cigarettes and snapshots of families back home. It seemed to me a pure miracle that we ever took those beaches at all. In the sector where I landed, our troops faced such odds that our getting ashore was like me whipping Joe Louis down to a pulp."

By Daryl Fisher

While the mighty struggles of D-Day were going on in the summer of 1944 in the Atlantic Theatre of war, there were tens of thousands of just as determined American soldiers who had already given their lives in the Pacific Theater in similar landings. On faraway little Pacific islands with names like Guadalcanal, Tarawa, Saipan and Tinian, American Marines had invaded Japanese-held islands and seen some of the bloodiest fighting of the war. And one of those very proud Marines who fought in each of the above mentioned battles is my next door neighbor, W. W. "Bill" Tyler.

Bill was born in 1921 and grew up on his family's farm in Colorado. He was just 20 years old when the Japanese bombed Pearl Harbor and like most of the men of his generation, he was eager to get into the fight.

"A bunch of us were out on the town one night and I told everyone I had decided to join the Marines," recalled Bill. "A couple of the other guys wanted to join, too, but for one reason or another they didn't make it. I did my basic training in San Diego where they made me a machine gunner and before I knew it I was on my way to the South Pacific."

After about six more months of training Bill suddenly found himself right in the middle of some of the bloodiest fighting in World War II.

"We helped secure Guadalcanal," said Bill, "and of the 200 men in my unit, only about 80 survived. Then after spending a few months in New Zealand getting replacements and bringing the outfit back up to full strength, we hit Tarawa. The Japanese had been telling everyone that Tarawa couldn't be taken in a thousand years, but we took it in 72 hours. We paid a really high price for that island, though. The tide was going out instead of in when we landed and most of us ended up in water over our heads. Bullets were flying everywhere and lots of really fine young men never made it to the shore."

Bill also saw action in a number of other famous Pacific island battles, including Saipan and Tinian. In the process he received

'In Saipan, I lost five men as soon as the landing craft door opened. But I was always sure I was going to make it back home. And once I did, I just decided to get on with my life and forget as best I could everything I had seen and done during the war.'

a battlefield promotion from private to sergeant, which in those days meant you had gone way beyond the call of duty while the fighting was at its worse.

"On Saipan I lost five men as soon as the landing craft door opened," remembered Bill, "but I was always sure I was going to make it back home. And once I did, I just decided to get on with my life and forget as best I could everything I had seen and done during the war."

Like my father, who also fought in the Pacific Theater during WWII and who is buried in the new Sacramento Valley National Cemetery in Dixon, Bill served his country as best he could and then got busy making the best life he could for himself and his family. And like all the countless other American veterans who have done the same over the years, their service and sacrifice can never be forgotten, or appreciated enough.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Anti-tobacco group looking for members

The Yolo County Tobacco Prevention Coalition is seeking new members!

An article in The Sacramento Bee entitled "Wealthy Counties Top the List of California's Healthiest," published on April 4, stated that Yolo County citizens have a far lower smoking rate than the majority of counties in California. This is a huge achievement for Yolo County and we must keep it up. Community members that are willing to do their part to help stand against the effects of the tobacco industries are the key to upholding this consistently low smoking rate, and play a key role in increasing awareness and supporting efforts for a healthier community.

Tobacco use is the No. 1 cause of preventable death globally, taking over 5 million lives a year. Today's cigarettes deliver nicotine more efficiently to the brain, addicting kids more quickly and making it harder for smokers to quit. Smoking and exposure to secondhand smoke cause immediate harm to the human body, and can lead to cancer, heart attacks, and lung disease.

The purpose of the Yolo County Tobacco Prevention Coalition is to prevent and reduce tobacco use through education, social norm change, and individual empowerment in our culturally diverse county. The coalition tries to reduce exposure to secondhand smoke, counter "Big Tobacco" influences, reduce the availability of tobacco to minors, and promote and provide help with quitting tobacco. A few of the coalition's recent accomplishments include assisting Yolo County cities and supervisors in reducing cigarette sales to children (via licensing retailers), and supporting Woodland and Winters City Councils in adopting resolutions to offer more smoke-free apartments.

There are so many benefits to joining the coalition! Coalition members are a group of advocates representing the general public and various agencies including those from the Yolo County school districts, law enforcement, and healthcare professionals. Make a difference in your community, be part of the decision making process, and make your community a healthier place. The coalition meets every other month to network, plan activities, and address current tobacco issues affecting Yolo County.

If you have an interest in preventing another generation from becoming addicted to tobacco products, being part of this coalition is a great opportunity to make a difference.

Please contact Steven Jensen with the Yolo County Tobacco Education Program at (530) 666-8616 or email steven.jensen@yolocounty.org. LINDSAY CORREA

NOTICE OF INTENT TO ADOPT A NEGATIVE DECLARATION

A Negative Declaration has been prepared for a project consisting of paving approximately 1.25 miles of the existing Clarksburg Branchline Trail in the City of West Sacramento. The lead agency for the proposed project is the City of West Sacramento.

The project includes approximately 1.25 miles of a complete Class 1 path generally from South River Road to a point east of River City High School (RCHS) adjacent to Sacramento County Regional Sanitation District pump station in Southport. The City would place approximately two inches of asphaltic concrete pavement on the existing 10-12 foot wide trail (compacted crushed recycled concrete road base). The project also includes construction of a culvert across the existing Reclamation District 900 ditch to allow bicycle and pedestrian traffic to access River City High School (RCHS). In addition, a paved connection will be provided to the Parlin Ranch neighborhood to the east of the RCHS, as well as signing and pavement markings along the trail alignment.

The Negative Declaration concludes there will be no significant adverse impacts on the environment. Copies of the Negative Declaration are on file in the office of the West Sacramento Community Development Department at 1110 West Capitol Avenue, 2nd Floor, West Sacramento, CA 95691 (916-617-4645).

The public comment period on the Negative Declaration begins on May 25, 2012. Any affected or interested parties may submit comments to the Community Development Department no later than 5 P.M. on June 15, 2012.

The West Sacramento City Council will consider adoption of the Negative Declaration on July 18, 2012 in the City Council chambers located at 1110 West Capitol Avenue, West Sacramento, California, at 7:00 p.m., or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard.

It shall be mandatory for the Contractor and any subcontractor under him to pay not less than the said specified rates to laborers and workmen employed by them in the execution of the contract. Pursuant to Section 1773 of the Labor Code, the general prevailing wage rates in the county, or counties, in which the work is to be done have been determined by the Director of the California Department of Industrial Relations. These wages are set forth in the General Prevailing Wage Rates for this project, available at City of West Sacramento Department Public located at: 1110 West Capitol Avenue, West Sacramento, California 95691 and available from the California Department of Industrial Relations' Internet web site at <http://www.dir.ca.gov/DLSR/PWD>. Future effective general prevailing wage rates, which have been predetermined and are on file with the California Department of Industrial Relations are referenced but not printed in the general prevailing wage rates. Attention is directed to the Federal minimum wage rate requirements in these Bid documents. If there is a difference between the minimum wage rates predetermined by the Secretary of Labor and the general prevailing wage rates determined by the Director of the California Department of Industrial Relations for similar classifications of labor, the Contractor and subcontractors shall pay not less than the higher wage rate. The Department will not accept lower State wage rates not specifically included in the Federal minimum wage determinations. The award of Contract will be made by the West Sacramento City Council, and the Contractor shall execute the Contract within ten (10) days after he has received the Contract from the City. The City reserves the right to waive any irregularity in the proposals. No bid may be withdrawn for a period of sixty (60) days after the opening of bids. Rejection of Bids: The right is reserved to reject any and all bids. Any bid not conforming to the intent and purpose of the Contract Documents may be rejected. The City reserves the right to make all awards in the best interest of the City. Disqualification of Bidder: If there is a reason to believe that collusion exists among any bidders, none of the bids of the participants in such collusion will be considered and the City may likewise elect to reject all bids received. Relief of Bidder: Attention is directed to the provisions of Public Contracts Code Section 5101 and following, concerning relief of bidders and in particular to the requirements therein that if the bidder claims a mistake was of wealth and privilege.

Meanwhile, Illinois Gov. Frank O. Lowden saw the unraveling of Chicago as a way to seize control of the city from Thompson, whose administration he saw as hopelessly corrupt.

Bestselling author Gary Krist blends colorful characters and rich detail to make distant history both exciting and relevant. This is more than the story of an American city facing challenges. It is how Chicago not only survived 12 horrific days, but became a stronger city because of it. Krist's book is an absolute triumph.
